The Annapurna View trekking is an ideal trip to the Annapurna Conservation Area. It is suitable for those who are short on time but looking for a quick and relatively easy trek to see the range of Mount Annapurna and Dhaulagiri. The Gurung and Magar culture, charming mountain, terraces, the green hills of the forest, waterfalls, and the fauna are the main attractions of this trek.

- ❖ World heritage site tour in Kathmandu.
- ❖ Picturesque Annapurna and Dhaulagiri mountain range.
- ❖ You will experience Gurung and Magar culture and lifestyle.
- ❖ Natural hot springs.
- ❖ You can see the national rhododendron flower.
- ❖ You can enjoy the Fauna, yaks, and vegetation.

Annapurna View Trekking is one of the shortest, but most rewarding and classic trekking options in Nepal. It presents an impressive mountainous landscape, which includes the high mountain range, which consists of the spectacular mount Machhapuchhre (fishtail). Most importantly, you will go to Poon Hill, an idyllic hilltop location that offers both sunrise and sunset views in the beautiful Himalayas.

Annapurna View Trek is an ideal option for those looking for a short and relatively easy hike to see the Annapurna mountain range. This exciting quick and easy hike offers travellers an enjoyable scenic walk within a tight schedule, allowing them to quickly try out the variety of Nepal's natural and cultural gems. This beautiful path winds through mosaic valleys, dense green forests, and cold waterfalls where you can stop to refresh our faces with natural water. Around every turning point, there is an enticing view of the high mountains before our eyes, the horizon of which will unfold when you reach higher altitudes.

Day 01: Arrival in Kathmandu (1,300 m.)

Upon arrival at Kathmandu International Airport, a representative from our office will pick you up and take you to your hotel. You can rest in the afternoon. Night stay at hotel in Kathmandu.

Meals included: none

Day 02: Trekking preparation and Kathmandu City Sightseeing Tour

Breakfast at the hotel and start sightseeing in the Kathmandu Valley. Our private vehicle will pick you up at your hotel and take you to 5 of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Apart from that, you will visit many places of historical and cultural importance. Starting from Swayambhunath Stupa, explore Patan Durbar Square, Boudhanath Stupa, Pashupatinath Temple and Kathmandu Durbar Square. Our professional guides will take you the whole place. After sightseeing, you can walk the streets of Thamel and go shopping for your trip. Night stay at a deluxe hotel in Kathmandu.

Meals included: breakfast

Day 03: Kathmandu to Pokhara by flight and trek to Ulleri: 30 min flight and 6 hours walking.

You flew to Pokhara early in the morning and enjoyed a breathtaking view of the Himalayas from the right side of our plane. Upon arrival in the beautiful city of Pokhara will reward you with a breathtaking view of the Himalayas, including Mount Manaslu, Dhaulagiri, Machhapuchhre, the five peaks of Mt. Annapurna and others.

After resting, drive to NayaPul and start the hike. You drive through subtropical forests in the valley, sometimes on the path carved into the side of the cliff. After lunch, you cross the Bhurungdi Khola over a bridge to the village of Tikhedhunga. Ulleri Hill, with thousands of steps and boulders that are continually climbing, will be a real test of our endurance. You arrive in Ulleri in the late afternoon. Night stay at teahouse in Ulleri.

Meals included: breakfast lunch dinner

Day 04: Trek from Ulleri to Ghorepani (2,750 m): walking distance 4 to 5 hours

After breakfast, You will ascend to the Ghorepani village. The name Ghorepani in Nepali means "horse water" because it is an essential warehouse for merchants before it became a stopover for hikers. Ghorepani is an exciting place with small shops and stalls selling local products and handicrafts. The village consists of two parts: one in the saddle and the other a few hundred feet below. You stop at the highest part of the village in Ghorepani and offer panoramic views of the surrounding mountains, such as the Annapurna South and Nilgiri Mountains peak. As Ghorepani is in a much higher elevation than your previous stay, you feel the cold weather, particularly at night. Night stay at Teahouse in Ghorepani.

Meals included: breakfast lunch dinner

Day 05: Trek from Ghorepani to Tadapani with a visit to Poon Hill: Walking Distance 6-7 hours

You take an early morning climb along the steep path to Poon Hill viewpoint, to see the sunrise over the Himalayas, the most popular trekking destination in the Annapurna region. It's also a high vantage point (3,210 m) to enjoy incredible views of Mustang, Pokhara, and over 20 of the tallest mountains, including close-ups of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges. The snow-capped peaks of the high mountains rise above and around us and glow in the morning light. After taking photos and drinking coffee, tea, or hot chocolate, you returned to Ghorepani. After breakfast, you walk east and up a nearby ridge. You move down through the rhododendron Jungle, past stunning waterfalls, and reach in Tadapani for the night. Night stay at Lodge in Tadapani.

Meals included: breakfast lunch dinner

Day 06: Trek from Tadapani to Ghandruk (1940 m): Walking Distance 3-4 hours

From Tadapani, you make a steep descent through the thick and dark forest. This part of the hike leads through a dense forest of old rhododendrons. When rhododendrons bloom, these forests become incredible gardens. Depend on the travel season; you can also enjoy the cherry blossoms on the slopes on the other side of the gorge. After a few minutes walk, you will enter the village of Ghandruk, a hilltop settlement with stone houses, most of which are inhabited by the Gurung community. You not only enjoyed the breathtaking close-ups view of the Fishtail Mountains, Annapurna South, and Hiunchuli but also got to know the simple but rich cultural traditions of the Gurung at the Gurung Museum in Ghandruk.

Meals included: breakfast lunch dinner

Day 7: Trekking from Ghandruk to Jhinu Danda.

After breakfast, the trail takes a while through the village of Ghandruk and downhill through the farming villages to a river where you cross a suspension bridge below and then follow a short steep climb to Jhinu Danda. As soon as you arrive at the hostel, you cool off in our rooms and go to the river bank to enjoy the natural hot springs. After relaxing in hot water, You go back to the lodge. You will spend the night at the Lodge Jhinu Danda

Meals included: breakfast lunch dinner

Day 8: Trekking to Pothana.

You can go back to the hot springs in the morning to refresh yourself, and then return to the path that goes down a valley to cross another bridge. Then there is a short climb that takes us to Landruk. There are still a few suspension bridges to cross and lots of waterfalls to enjoy along the way. Landruk is a great Magar village with residents and their traditional costumes and culture. After lunch in Landruk, you will continue with some ups and downs that lead to the bottom of a hill in Bhaisekharka. Then it goes steeply uphill to a ridge near Deurali through a vast forest. From Deurali, you can see the view of Annapurna south of Hiunchuli in the north and continue the hike to Pothana, which is on a ridge from which you can enjoy a magnificent view of the Mount Dhaulagiri, the Annapurna Range and many more. Night stay at Lodge in Pothana.

Meals included: breakfast lunch dinner

Day 9: Walk from Pothana to Phedi and drive to Pokhara.

Today is the last day of our trek; it is an easy and short walk to Dhampus village. After Dhampus, the path descends to Phedi, the endpoint of our trek. After 30 minutes by car, you reach Pokhara. Night stay at Hotel in Pokhara.

Meals included: breakfast.

Day 10: Pokhara - Kathmandu.

After breakfast, drive to the bus stop to go to Kathmandu (we can arrange a private vehicle or plane ticket for an additional fee). Check-in at the hotel and rest. You can go to the market for souvenirs shopping for your family or friend. Night stay at hotel in Kathmandu.

Meals included: breakfast

Travel insurance

Travel insurance for every itinerary of our company is a prerequisite for booking a vacation. You must have at least emergency and repatriation insurance, which must include the cost of mountain rescue. Read the terms of your insurers carefully, especially make sure that the following is covered: 1) activity (i.e., tourism, trekking or mountaineering) 2) maximum altitude reached on the trek 3) evacuation of the helicopter for the case of an emergency. You must understand that you are ultimately responsible for all costs associated with the removal and return procedures and that it is your responsibility to bear the costs of the evacuation or medical treatment. You should be fully aware of the impact of organizing your travel insurance and understand the limitations and exclusions of your policy. Please note that under certain circumstances, our company leader can initiate helicopter rescue (or other necessary means) in medical emergencies without first asking your insurance company for approval.

Physical fitness and experience requirements

The Annapurna view Trek is suitable for passionate trekkers who can walk 5-6 hours a day with a light backpack. The hike is relatively comfortable for those who can walk at higher altitudes. We kindly ask you to jog and exercise regularly at least a few months before the start of your trip. Previous hiking experiences would be a bonus, but technical knowledge is not necessary for this trip. It is also essential to check with your doctor before booking the trek. If you have the following diseases related to heart, lung, and blood, then you must inform us before booking the trek.

Best travel time for Annapurna View Trek

This Trek is best in the fall (September through November) and spring (March through May). During this time, the sky is clear, and the view is excellent. The weather is perfect for hiking without rain. You can also enjoy lush greenery in the lower part of the trail, particularly during the spring season.
